OBITUARY.

Uncle John Brown, of Gove County, Answered the Last Roll Call May 3.

John H. Brown was born in Buffalo, N. Y., August 13, 1834, moved from there to Clarion county, Penn., when very young, resided in said county until August 29, 1881, moved from there to Carlton, Neb. He resided there until the fall of 1885 when he moved to Gove county and resided in said county until the time of his death—May 3, 1901.

The deceased enlisted in the Union army September 25, 1861. Served his country faithfully in Co. D 103rd Reg.
Penn. Vol.—was discharged June 25, 1865.

He was converted in 1854 and united with the M. E. church, and lived a consistent christian life until the time of his translation when Jesus took him with himself forever.

As a citizen he was respected by all who knew him, and his life such as will influence many to more noble principles and purposes as citizens.

As a soldier he was faithful to his country and devoted to the flag which meant much to him, and whose life was given as a sacrifice for its defense.

As a husband and father was kind, loving and devoted; his influence in his home will be cherished, and those who cared for him in his long illness and suffering, will remember how God can sustain and that the Grace of God can make us resigned to His will when body racked with pain.

Brother Brown has been a great sufferer for years with disease contracted in the army which caused his death.

During his long illness and great suffering he was patient and wholly resigned to the will of God. When the end was near he said: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord;" and he said to those who were sorrowing:
"Weep not for me all is well, have a desire to stay with my family, but have been a great sufferer, and to depart will be better."

His sufferings are ended; he rests from all care—
In mansions of glory prepared for me there.

In resting and waiting; in looking to see Those left behind me who loved me so dear
In that home above us so beautiful and fair,
Will be forever with the Lord there.

Brother Brown was laid away to rest in the Collyer cemetery May 5th.
A host of friends and neighbors followed the remains to its last resting place. Funeral services were conducted by E. E. Gunckel, pastor of M. E. church of Wa-Keeney.

Beware of a Cough.

A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are most fatal and dangerous diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderful successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by Jones & Gibson.

Only 24 doctors reach the age of 70 for every 42 clergymen.
